

INTERN WITH PAAC!

Help bring the world to Hawai'i

The Pacific and Asian Affairs Council (PAAC) is seeking undergraduate students interested in receiving hands-on office experience in an international nonprofit organization.

- Help coordinate conferences and cultural presentations
- Participate in adult forums, high school conferences, community college cultural events, and young professionals networking socials
- Learn about foreign affairs from experts in the field
- Receive work experience in a nonprofit organization

Our office is adjacent to the UH-Manoa campus at the East-West Center. Intern hours are flexible. Other benefits include free PAAC membership and complimentary attendance to many of our events.

PAAC is the World Affairs Council for the State of Hawai'i and has been providing international education for 51 years. Our mission is to promote global understanding of international affairs, especially pertaining to the Asia-Pacific region.

To apply, contact The Pacific and Asian Affairs Council,
