PAAC CELEBRATES 56 YEARS!

Since 1954, PAAC has served over 76,000 high school students and teachers and over 97,000 individuals attending community college events statewide. Our mission is to promote greater awareness and understanding of Hawaii's role in the Asia/Pacific region through special outreach programs. PAAC's educational programs serve public and private secondary school students, community college students, as well as business people, educators, government, and community leaders. The Pacific and Asian Affairs Council (PAAC) is a private, non-profit educational organization funded by individual and corporate memberships and contributions, private grants and trusts, and state and federal contracts.
