Hawaii International Education Week Fair

Hawaii International Education Week Fair, Voices From Around the World, will be held on Saturday, November 18, 2006 from 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. at the UH-Manoa William S. Richardson School of Law. The event will focus on exploring opportunities abroad, and will include personal experiences from Fulbright participants, Foreign Service officers, journalists, and both local and foreign high school students. The event is free and open to the public. Organizations interested in having an information booth to showcase opportunities abroad should contact PAAC at 944-7784 or paac@paachawaii.org by November 6.

This conference is sponsored by the Fulbright Association-Hawaii Chapter, International Hospitality Center, Pacific and Asian Affairs Council, UH-Manoa William S. Richardson School of Law. PAAC is a private, non-profit organization that promotes increased understanding of world affairs, particularly Asia-Pacific issues, by sponsoring speaker forums and conferences, facilitating cross-cultural exchange of international visitors, and conducting global education outreach programs at Hawai'i high schools and community colleges statewide.
