

PACIFIC & ASIAN AFFAIRS COUNCIL

Study Tour to New York and the United Nations

Be at the forefront of international diplomacy in the heart of NYC

Be a part of the first-ever PAAC cohort to visit the United Nations in New York City! This study tour offers the exclusive opportunity to attend the High Level Political Forum on Sustainable Development - along with the chance to meet officials from major UN agencies and member states. Students will also meet with leaders in business, media, academia, and civil society to understand how each sector works together to create a more sustainable future. This fast-paced tour in the nation's busiest city is the perfect opportunity to learn what concepts like peace-building, human rights, sustainability, and governance look like in action. Chaperoned by international scholar, Joshua Cooper. Applicants must complete the 18th Annual Human Rights Academy.

Tour Dates: 6 nights between July 14-22

Cost: $4,000

Applications and more information at:

<http://www.paachawaii.org/study-tours-abroad>

Trip Applications Due March 17, 2017

18th Annual Human Rights Academy

The 18th Annual Human Rights Academy strives for social justice in the development of a sustainable society in Hawaii. This year's academy will feature the UN Global Goals for Sustainable Development, particularly goals focusing on poverty reduction, gender equality, and the environment. The program will be held on the UH Manoa Campus from June 26-30, 9am-2pm (tentatively).

Human Rights Academy Cost: $25

Registration forms at www.paachawaii.org.

Questions? Contact Erica Nakanishi-Stanis

at 944-7784 or paac@paachawaii.org

Academy Registration Due: June 1

THE GLOBAL GOALS
For Sustainable Development

